

I am writing you today to state my opposition to the adoption of HF/VHF based BPL systems. These systems have been proven to interfere with licensed services using the same spectrum. This is in violation of Part 15 rules, and increasing the limits is not the answer. If the technology is so flawed that changing the rules is the only way to get it to work, should we really be going down this road?